

BIOGRAPHY

patrick mohr s designs are usually simple, casual and play with different silhouettes. Pure materials such as cotton, wool and leather accentuate the purist impression. Architectural, sometimes draped in flowing his designs are often a tension between elegance and sportiness, avantgarde and streetwear. His look may be described as urban and clean, because classical elements are combined with new forms. patrick mohr is progressive fashion with timeless wearability. The brand was founded in 2008, after patrick mohr had completed his fashion studies at the international fashion school ESMOD. In the same year he won the „Prix Createur“ for the best collection. Afterwards he worked for Henrik Vibskov in Copenhagen. Since 2008, he is developing and designing his own label patrick mohr. He impresses with artistical activism by trying to escape from boundaries existing in the world of fashion. His fashion is determined beside the discreet equalization of the male and female nature above all by the use of geometrical forms. His outspoken design creates something new, something independent.

